THE PASSING PARADE

"FROM THESE ROOTS"

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

Low Moor, Virginia

Foreword

As you travel o'er life's pathways, you will encounter numerous experiences you will wish to relive. There are countless footsteps you would like to retrace. Your days spent at CHS will always be among your most cherished memories. Through the pages of this 1958-59 Passing Parade, we have tried to capture moments you will want to remember. Our desire is that as you leaf through these pages you will have June roses in December.

My sincere desire for the Class of '59 is that each of you finds a place that will bring to you a life of Fulfillment and Happiness.

You have become an integral part of Central High and our best wishes are with you always.

IN APPRECIATION

To you Miss Gleason our untiring English teacher and class advisor, we the class of 1959, in appreciation for the many hours you have unselfishly devoted to guiding our class and for your perpetually good natured attitude, leave our deepest gratitude, fondest memories, and finest regards.

Card, Best of luck to a friend I will never forget.
Don't forget the fun we have had during this past year. Remember that night up at supper. All of the happiness you will need when you undertake anything you want to do.

Can't,

We can't let this picture go, can we? Didn't we have fun in Washington with all those boys. I wasn't by myself on the "Moonlight Cruise", was I? By the way, who were you with. Don't worry so much about these "Yankees". They'll come out like we usually do. Good luck be good, and May God Bless you.

ORGANIZATIONS

FROM THESE ROOTS . . . the students at Central High learn leadership and responsibility through their work on the council. The purpose of the S.C.A. is to increase respect for school and private property, to promote courtesy and general good citizenship on the school grounds, in the building and on the buses. All students of Central are members of the Student Council Association.

Student Council Association

FROM THESE ROOTS . . . the Students of Central High School build strong characters for their future years by pledging allegiance to the flag.

At Christmas, the S.C.A. collects food from each homeroom and prepares Christmas boxes for needy families.

S.C.A. ACTIVITIES

Each year, the S.C.A. President awards letters to those who have obtained the standard twenty-five points required by the point system.

Passing Parade Staff

Have you ever been about to drop from exhaustion? Have you put out so much effort you dropped when the job was completed? Have you been unable to sleep until a job was done and then unable to arouse? Have you worn out your shoes, your fingers, your imagination? No? Then you've never been on the annual staff, as these have. This is the Passing Parade Staff, and "they've had it." Now you have it and they hope you like it.

CENTRILIAN

CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL

Low Moor, Virginia

Staff Working

The newspaper staff works hard to meet the deadline they set in which to get the paper out. Each member of the staff has a certain job to do but they all pitch in and do any job when the deadline draws close. You'll never know how important this deadline is until you've had the privilege of working on the "Centrilian."

Selling Like Mad

These students are selling newspapers and you can see what a job they are having with students yelling, "I want one," and pushing and shoving each other with outstretched arms to get theirs so as to set down or stand up and read it. There's always half a dozen other heads peering over their shoulders to see if they can read something that they haven't already found out about.

This is one of the many projects the junior class undertakes. They try to make this publication every six weeks. The money that is cleared is turned over to the school.

Trees

I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree
A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;
A tree that looks at God all day,
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;
A tree that may in Summer wear
A nest of Robins in her hair:
Upon whose bosom snow has lain
Who intimately lives with rain.
Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.

Junior Classical League

The Central J.C.L. is affiliated with the National Club. It also belongs to the state organization. Anyone who has studied Latin may be a member during high school after once paying his membership dues.

The purpose of the club is to create and maintain greater interest in Latin at the national, state, and local levels. Every year the club holds a National Convention, to which all the local clubs are invited to send representatives.

The Virginia J. C. L. also has a convention. This year it was held at Waynesboro High School. The Central Club sent Carol McGuire as its representative to this convention.

Our club meets once a month. The program chairman has a program planned for this meeting which deals with some phase of Roman life or some contribution to the world. During the December meeting the members of the club made Christmas cards. The club also plans to present a program for assembly. The big event of the year will be the annual spring banquet.

K V G C R E W

The "Keep Virginia Green" club has done outstanding work this year in helping to prevent two fires from spreading to any great harm. By doing this they have carried out their purpose; to fight and help prevent fires.

The pledge that every member takes is, "I give my pledge as an American to save and faithfully to defend from waste the natural resources of my country--its soils and minerals, its forest, water, and wild life."

Distributive Education

The Deca Club under the supervision of Mr. Robert Booker strives to make today's smaller businesses, larger better businesses of tomorrow.

Mechanical Drawing

FROM THESE ROOTS . . . will come the draftsmen of tomorrow. This drawing class composed of Senior boys is under the leadership of Mr. Robert Knabenshue.

Around School

FROM THESE ROOTS . . . will come the scientists of tomorrow. Here in this laboratory Mary Lucy Deisher and Gary Noffsinger are preparing oxygen and collecting it by means of displacement of water.

This is the 1958 starting eleven for the Central Falcons. They played average ball in most games but faced better ball clubs from District 5 and they capitalized on all our mistakes.

The team consisted mainly of inexperienced underclassmen who in spite of this fact played extremely good ball.

Co-Captains

Watching intently from the sideline Central reserves await the starting whistle.

This Buena Vista back had a rough road to travel against Centrals defense on this play.

Dreama Nicely was crowned Homecoming Queen of the Central Falcons for 1958 at the half of the Central-Buena Vista game. This is an annual event. The Queen and Senior attendant, Sue Ellen Collins, were chosen by the football team.

Homecoming

The Queen and her court. The Sophomore and Junior attendants, Pat Drumheller and Judy Hayslette were elected by their classes.

After the game the crowd proceeded to the Central gym for the annual Homecoming dance with music by Buck Arritt and his Lets Dance Band.

Cheerleaders

This group of girls, the Central Cheerleaders, neatly dressed in maroon and grey, formed the energetic nucleus which encouraged school spirit and participation in all athletic events.

The cheerleaders backed the Falcons through victory and defeat. Rocking the rafters of the gyms, the cheering section gave out with roars of pep and enthusiasm at the games.

Carol,
Best of luck to a crazy kid like you. I have enjoyed going to school with you. Remember the good times we had together. Always remember me as a good friend of yours. Best of luck to you in the future.
Love always,
Katherine Louise Carey

Carol,
Best of luck in the future may God bless and guide you in life. I have always enjoyed going to school with you and I hope we may always be friends. I also ~~hope~~ hope someone will ^{keep} you posted on the Yankees while you're in college. Be a good girl like you've always been in the past.

A friend always,
Peggy Jean Mays

Carol,
The best of luck to a swell girl. Always remember the Latin class.
Love ya
Joann

Carol,

What is this I hear about Latin killing you? You may fool some people, but I know that it is the Yankee's record and mischief that are killing you. Cheer up, there is still time for a change.

I have enjoyed teaching you in English, but I won't mention Latin.

I'll miss your calling me on the phone next year.

I hope that you will do well in college and make us all proud of you.

Best wishes!

Sincerely,

Larry E. Gleason.

Carol, who on earth will be back next year to get as mad in typing and who is the biggest Yankee fan I've ever known? 'Tis indeed a pity those Yankees are in the cellar isn't it? What'll you do next year when you're in college working like mad and not be able to watch the Series? Good luck Carol, study hard.

Sybil Hoover

Carol, you have been a good student. I have enjoyed having you in my classes. Best of luck to you in the future.

Edith L. Michie

Carol, Good luck to a swell girl. I will always remember you and the good time we had at Washington with the water gun; I really didn't mean any harm. You are a barrel of fun and I will miss you. Come to see me and watch the Red keys play.

Best Wishes,

Sue Ellen Collins

He who knows not, and knows not that he knows not,
is a fool, shun him;
He who knows not, and knows that he knows
not, is a child, teach him;
He who knows, and knows not that he knows,
is asleep, wake him;
He who knows, and knows that he knows is wise, follow him.
This applies to the profession you're about to enter. J. Butler

Carol
Best of luck
in the future to a real sweet girl. Stay as sweet as you are and you will never have any problems.
Love always
Yvonne Carter

Carol,
Oh, horror, horror, horror.
Tongue nor heart can conceive nor name thee! (Macbeth)

Best of luck you old Yankee.
You'll need it too. I sure have enjoyed going to school with you.
Remember all the good times we've had. The Senior Play was tops and remember the good times on the Washington trip. Study hard in college and have fun. Take good and stay sweet. Love ya!

Connie Krugger

Carol,
Best of luck
in the future. I'm sure you will always succeed. St. Louis has been a wonderful experience.
